

About Avanti Parulekar

Avanti Parulekar is the visionary CEO of Magic of Change, blending strategic leadership with a passion for human development. As a Certified NLP Master Practitioner and Associate Certified Coach (ACC), she leverages over a decade of HR, corporate training, and executive coaching experience to unlock potential and drive transformation.

Avanti's contributions to the fields of HR and coaching have earned her several prestigious accolades. In 2023, she was recognized as a Global Rising Leader in Coaching by White Page International. She was also named one of Asia's 100 Power Leaders in HR in 2022 and received the Woman Changemaker of the Year award by Transformance Forum the same year. Additionally, she was recognized as an HR 40 Under 40 leader by Jombay in 2020. Beyond her corporate achievements, Avanti is also an organic farmer, committed to sustainability and holistic living. Her journey through coaching and farming reflects her dedication to balanced growth and personal transformation

Avanti's work in leadership excellence, coaching, and women's empowerment positions her as a powerful force for change. She leads with vision, passion, and a commitment to helping others realize their full potential.

